Industry 4.0 and the Extension of Malaysia's Economic Success Story

The Blum Center for Developing Economies would like to invite you to attend a talk by Lim Guan Eng, Malaysia's Minister of Finance and the Secretary General of the Democratic Action Party (DAP) on October 21st, 1:00-2:00pm at Blum Hall Rm B100. He will be delivering a talk on the investment environment in Malaysia including the causes behind Malaysia's success in reducing its dependence on extractive resources and agriculture, diversifying its economy, and transitioning to a knowledge based, competitive, and innovative economy capable of creating jobs outside the state sector and producing high value-added goods and services. Minister Lim Guan Eng will also be delivering a brief synopsis of Malaysia's development trajectory, current initiatives, and what remains to be done.

- Monday, October 21, 2019, 1-2pm, Blum Hall, Room B100
FALL SEMINARS ON GLOBAL OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

1. Protecting Workers' Health and Safety in Gujarat, India: Mr. Jagdish Patel, Executive Director, People's Training & Research Center, Vadodara, Gujarat, India is an educational and legal rights advocacy organization working to protect the health and safety of Indian workers in industries including stone-crushing, agate polishing, chemical plants and asbestos manufacturing among others.

   - Monday, October 21, 2019, 4:30pm, Room 5400, 5th floor (2121 Berkeley Way/1919 Shattuck Avenue), UC Berkeley School of Public Health

2. Ebola in Africa: Protecting Healthcare Workers' Safety in the Midst of an Epidemic. Dr. Andrea Tenner, University of California San Francisco's work centers around building resilience in emergency care systems. She worked in Sierra Leone during the West Africa Ebola Outbreak and has helped countries prepare for and respond to the threat of Ebola since that time. Implementing occupational health measures to protect care givers has been key to the public health campaign to contain and eliminate the outbreaks.

   - Tuesday, November 19, 4:30pm; Room 5400, 5th floor, (2121 Berkeley Way/1919 Shattuck Avenue), UC Berkeley School of Public Health
