IAS News & Notes

Friday, October 25, 2019

IAS ADVISING

FALL 2019
BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

- M-F 10am - noon
- M-Th 1pm - 4pm

KEY DATES

- Friday, October 25, 2019, 4-5pm, Barrows 54, Global English Camp Internship in Japan Information Session
- Friday, November 1, 2019: Deadline to change grading option from letter grade to P/NP or from P/NP to letter grade
- Thursday, November 7, 2019 4-6pm: Durant Conference Room 9, Calm at Cal: Finding Balance and Self-Care
- Tuesday, November 19, 2019 - Phase II registration begins for continuing students
- Friday, December 6, 2019 - Deadline to submit Late Change of Class Schedule. Due to the College by 4pm

What TO DO ABOUT PAKISTAN'S ECONOMY?

The Institute for South Asia Studies is hosting a lecture entitled "What to Do About Pakistan's Economy?: The Mohamedali Habib Distinguished Lecture for 2019 with Atif Mian, Professor of Economics, Public Policy, and Finance (Princeton University) and Co-Founder & Board Member of Center for Economic Research in Pakistan (CERP).

- Friday, October 25, 6-8pm, The Great Hall, Bancroft Hotel, 2680 Bancroft Way, Berkeley
OFFICE HOURS WITH SIDDHARTH KARA: Anti-Human Trafficking Author, Researcher, and Activist

Are you passionate about advocacy, research, and career opportunities to fight human trafficking and modern-day slavery on local and global scale? Siddharth Kara will be available for office hours. He welcomes both undergraduate and graduate students to meet, answer questions, and share ideas.

Siddharth Kara is research fellow at UC Berkeley’s Blum Center, and adjunct lecturer at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government, and a visiting scientist at the Harvard School of Public Health. Kara has traveled to more than 50 countries across six continents to research modern slavery.

- Tuesday, October 29 and Wednesday, October 30, 2019
- 30 minute appointments at Blum Hall
- Sign Up: https://www.wejoinin.com/sheets/gyskf

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS FELLOWSHIP IN INDIA

The Council on Foreign Relations is delighted to bring to your attention a fellowship opportunity that is geared towards mid-career U.S. professionals looking to spend three to twelve months conducting research and working in India. The International Affairs Fellowship (IAF) in India, with a grant contributed by Bharti, seeks to strengthen mutual understanding and cooperation between rising generations of leaders and thinkers in the United States and India.

- The program awards a stipend of $90,000 for a period of twelve months (or a prorated amount if the duration is shorter) as well as a modest travel allowance
- Qualified applicants must be U.S. Citizens and possess a strong record of professional development
- Interested applicants should apply online by Thursday, October 31, 2019
- Questions? Please contact: fellowships@cfr.org
FALL SEMINAR ON GLOBAL OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

Ebola in Africa: Protecting Healthcare Workers' Safety in the Midst of an Epidemic. Dr. Andrea Tenner, University of California San Francisco's work centers around building resilience in emergency care systems. She worked in Sierra Leone during the West Africa Ebola Outbreak and has helped countries prepare for and respond to the threat of Ebola since that time. Implementing occupational health measures to protect caregivers has been key to the public health campaign to contain and eliminate the outbreaks.

- Tuesday, November 19, 4:30pm; Room 5400, 5th floor, (2121 Berkeley Way/1919 Shattuck Avenue), UC Berkeley School of Public Health

DEVELOPMENT INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY IN PHNOM PENH

Khemara, is Cambodia's longest-serving local Non-Governmental Organization (NGO). They have developed a range of services to protect and empower women and children to help them improve their quality of life. Their services include: provision of childcare centers, child protection, public health services, income generation initiatives and capacity building.

Khemara is offering three candidates the possibility of an internship, in which students will be able to complete a varied and rich experience in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The internship will commence in October/November 2019 for one candidate and January/February 2020 for two candidates.

- You can learn more about Khemara by visiting their website
- To apply, email your cover letter and CV to Michelle Alm Engvall at khemara.intern1@khemaracambodia.org. Be sure to indicate in the Subject line the internship period you wish to apply
- Deadline: Friday, December 6, 2019 for second time-period
JAMES C. GAITHER JUNIOR FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Career Center currently administers this highly competitive, prestigious fellowship program for international affairs and international business-oriented recent or pending grads.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is a global network of research centers with the mission of advancing peace through analysis and development of policy and direct engagement with decision-makers in government, business, and civil society. The Gaither Junior Fellows Program is designed for students who have a serious interest in international affairs - fellows provide research assistance to scholars working on one of Carnegie Endowment's projects. UC Berkeley will nominate up to two students to be considered for 12 positions at Carnegie in Washington, DC on a full-time basis for a period of one year. Applicants must be graduating UC Berkeley seniors or UC Berkeley alumni who have graduated within the past academic year.

- Visit James C. Gaither webpage for more information
- Deadline to apply: Tuesday, December 17, 2019, 5pm