As you are aware, the UC Berkeley campus has made the default grading option for every course this term “P/NP”. You DO have the choice to select a letter grade option by May 8, 2020.

The Interdisciplinary Social Science Programs (ISSP) which houses the LEGACY Majors (Asian Studies, Development Studies, Latin American Studies, Middle Eastern Studies and Peace and Conflict Studies) will accept P/NP grades for all lower-division and upper-division courses that count towards the major for the spring 2020 semester ONLY. This includes courses taken at UC Berkeley as well as other universities and community colleges. Again, we want to assure you that classes taken this semester for the Legacy majors will satisfy major requirements even though you received P grades.
