Dear Spring 2020 Graduating Students,

Many of you have reached out to inquire about our plans for the IAS Commencement this May because of the Covid-19 crisis. Following the recent guidelines outlined by the campus leadership, we are very sad to announce the cancellation of the in-person IAS Commencement scheduled for Thursday, May 21, 2020 in Zellerbach Hall.

While we always look forward to this wonderful event that celebrates your accomplishments and hard work with your families and friends, we are also mindful of the health risks posed by an in-person event. We are living in extraordinary and challenging times and we appreciate your understanding as we all learn to navigate these uncharted waters. We are working on alternative options to provide you with a proper celebration of your achievements and will keep you posted.

Please take care and be safe.

P/NP GRADES FOR GLOBAL STUDIES & POLITICAL ECONOMY MAJORS

As you are aware, the UC Berkeley campus has made the default grading option for every course this term P/NP. You also have the option to select a letter grade option by May 8, 2020. The Interdisciplinary Social Science Programs (ISSP) which houses the Global Studies and Political Economy majors will accept P/NP grades for all lower-division and upper-division courses that count towards the major for the spring 2020 semester ONLY. This includes courses taken at UC Berkeley as well as other universities and community colleges. Again, we want to assure you that classes* taken this semester towards the Global Studies or the Political Economy majors will satisfy major requirements even though you received P grades.

*See below for grading information related to GLOBAL 45 and GLOBAL 10A courses

GLOBAL 45 & GLOBAL 10A GRADING INFORMATION

Students are required to earn a B- or better in GLOBAL 45 in order to declare either the Political Economy or Global Studies majors. In addition, students who want to declare Global Studies must also earn a C or better in GLOBAL 10A.

Even though grades are P/NP this term, instructors in these courses will be calculating grades as if they are not. That means that your instructors, Professors Gottreich and Zook will be keeping track of your grades using the standard letter grading plan. They will report the grades to the program’s advisors who can then determine whether or not you are eligible to declare one of these majors.

If you earn a B- or better in GLOBAL 45, whether or not you choose to have the letter grade on your transcript, you will be admitted to the major.

If you earn a C+ or a C in GLOBAL 45, you ordinarily will not be admitted to the major. For this semester only, we will allow you to be admitted to your selected major if you complete an upper-division course from the list below, in the academic year 2020-21, and a earn a B- or better. If you do not earn at least a B- in one of those courses, you will need to find another major.

If you earn a C-, D+, D, or D-, you will receive a P grade. Please note that normally only grades of C- and above would be eligible for a P grade. We are therefore expanding the number of students who will Pass, but to be clear, students who receive any of these grades (C-, D+, D, or D-) will not be eligible for the majors.

POLECON 160 001 (15082) - FASCISM, POPULISM and the ELITES in the 20th and 21st CENTURY (4 units)

Are liberal democracies faced with a fascist threat today? The question of how to understand the new political insurgencies which have upended traditional political party alignments has brought the terms "populism" and "fascism" to the forefront of public debate and made rigorous definition an urgent task. While some right-wing populism to be little more than a convenient euphemism for the new fascist sensibility, rhetoric and policy, some emphasize the distinct and irretrievable otherness of the interwar moment in the 20th century Europe that produced the "classic" fascist movements in Italy, Spain, and National Socialism in Germany. Our task is to focus attention on the alarming continuities with the past and to attempt to from the past history without being blinded by our own analogies to what is new in the contemporary moment. The course is thus framed around the continuities and discontinuities between "classic" fascism of the interwar period, its ideological variations and contexts, and the "neo-fascisms," and radical right movements in Western Europe between 1945 and 1989. We then use these contexts to analyze the dramatic growth in right-wing populism in Western and Eastern Europe since 2008.
